Verb Patterns

I enjoy going. I decided to go. She made me go.

How to use this guide

This guide is for self-study. You do not need to submit anything. Read it in order, do the practice, and check your answers at the end. It takes about 60 minutes.

Part	What you will do	Time
1	Understand what a verb pattern is	10 min
2	Learn the 6 patterns (one at a time)	25 min
3	Avoid 4 common mistakes	5 min
4	Practice + check your answers	20 min

By the end of this guide, you will be able to…

- recognize which form a verb needs after it: -ING, TO + verb or the base verb;
- use the most common verbs of each pattern correctly when you speak and write;
- explain how the meaning changes with remember, forget, try, stop and regret.

PART 1 What is a verb pattern?

The idea

Sometimes two verbs go together in the same sentence. The first verb decides the form of the second verb. That combination is called a verb pattern.

I	enjoy	dancing.
subject	VERB 1: the "boss"	VERB 2: follows the boss

✓ I enjoy dancing. ✗ I enjoy to dance.

Enjoy is the boss, and it always wants -ING after it.

The three forms of verb 2

Verb 2 can only take one of these three forms: the -ING form (gerund), TO + verb (to-infinitive) or the base verb.

Why is this difficult for Spanish speakers?

In Spanish, verb 2 is almost always the infinitive (-ar, -er, -ir). In English, it changes depending on verb 1:

Spanish	English
Disfruto bailar.	I enjoy dancing.
Decidí viajar.	I decided to travel.
Me hizo llorar.	She made me cry.

How to learn them

> There is no magic rule. Learn each verb together with its partner, like a package:
> not just enjoy → but enjoy + -ING not just decide → but decide + TO > Negative? Put not before verb 2: I decided not to go. / I regret not studying.

PART 2 The 6 verb patterns

Here is the map of everything you will learn. Then we look at each pattern, one by one.

#	Pattern	Example
1	VERB + -ING	I enjoy going to the park.
2	VERB + TO + VERB	They decided to buy a new car.
3	VERB + OBJECT + TO + VERB	The coach told me to be on time.
4	VERB + OBJECT + BASE VERB	She made me watch her favorite movie.
5	VERB + -ING or TO (same meaning)	I like swimming. = I like to swim.
6	VERB + -ING or TO (different meaning)	I stopped to help her. ≠ I stopped helping her.

How many verbs are in each pattern?

Patterns 1, 2 and 3 are the long lists. Study a few verbs every day.

Number of verbs in the "Verbs to learn" lists of this guide.

VERB + -ING

verb 1 + verb-ING

- I enjoy going to the park with my niece.
- He admitted stealing the money.
- Learning a language involves studying a little every day.

VERBS TO LEARN

admit	discuss	imagine	practice
anticipate	dislike	involve	quit apologize for	dread	keep	recommend avoid	enjoy	look forward to*	resume
be used to*	fancy	mention	risk
can't help	feel like	mind	suggest consider	finish	miss	accuse sb of deny	go (go swimming)	postpone

Bonus rule: after a preposition (about, of, for, in, on, from…) the verb is always -ING: She worries about failing. / He insisted on paying. / Thanks for helping me.

* Careful with "to"! In look forward to and be used to, "to" is a preposition, so -ING follows: I look forward to meeting you. / I'm used to working at night.

2 PATTERN 2
VERB + TO + VERB

verb 1 + to + verb

- They decided to buy a new car.
- I can't afford to travel this year.
- We agreed not to tell anyone.

VERBS TO LEARN

afford	expect	offer	volunteer
agree	fail	plan	wait
ask	hope	pretend	want
attempt	learn	promise	would like
choose	manage	refuse	would love
decide	mean	struggle	would hate deserve	need	threaten	would prefer

3 PATTERN 3
VERB + OBJECT + TO + VERB

verb 1 + object + (not) to + verb

The object (me, you, him, her, us, them, the students…) is the person who does verb 2.

- The coach told me not to be late for training.
- They encouraged the students not to give up.
- My parents want me to study medicine.

VERBS TO LEARN

advise	expect	permit	urge allow	forbid	persuade	want
ask	force	remind	warn
beg	hire	require
convince	invite	teach
encourage	order	tell

Spanish trap: "Quiero que tú vengas" is NOT "I want that you come". In English: I want you to come.

4 PATTERN 4
VERB + OBJECT + BASE VERB

verb 1 + object + base verb (no "to"!)

- She made me watch her favorite movie.
- They made him apologize to the class.
- She didn't let me open the window.
- Can you help me (to) solve this puzzle? (help: with or without "to")

VERBS TO LEARN

make	let	help (+ to)	would rather*

* Would rather also takes the base verb, but without an object: I would rather stay home tonight.

5 PATTERN 5
VERB + -ING or TO (same meaning)

verb 1 + verb-ING or to + verb → same meaning

- I like swimming. = I like to swim.
- It started raining. = It started to rain.

VERBS TO LEARN

like	prefer	continue	propose
love	begin	can't bear
hate	start	can't stand

Careful: with would it is only TO: I like dancing. but I would like to dance tonight.

6 PATTERN 6
VERB + -ING or TO (different meaning)

verb 1 + verb-ING or to + verb → different meaning!

Only 5 verbs to learn here, but they are important. Compare:

Verb	+ TO + verb	+ -ING
remember	Don't forget to do it (future). Remember to turn off the lights when you leave.	Have a memory of the past. I remember turning off the lights. I'm sure!
forget	Not do something you had to do. He forgot to send the email. (He didn't send it.)	Lose a memory (usually: never forget). I'll never forget visiting Cartagena.
try	Make an effort (it's difficult). I tried to open the window, but it was locked.	Experiment to solve a problem. It's hot. Try opening the window.
stop	Pause one action to do another. She stopped to drink some water.	Finish an action completely. He stopped watching TV to study.
regret	Be sorry to give bad news (formal). We regret to inform you that…	Feel sorry about the past. She regrets telling him her secret.

Shortcut: TO → verb 2 happens after verb 1 (it is in the future). -ING → verb 2 happened before or was already happening. Exception: try.

PART 3 4 common mistakes

These are the mistakes Spanish speakers make most often. Read the ✗ and the ✓.

	✗ Wrong	✓ Correct
1. "que" sentences	I want that you help me.	I want you to help me.
2. Translating the Spanish infinitive	I enjoy to cook.	I enjoy cooking.
3. "to" that is a preposition	I look forward to see you.	I look forward to seeing you.
4. "to" after make / let	My boss made me to work late.	My boss made me work late.

PART 4 Practice

Do the exercises without looking at Part 2 first. Then check your answers on the last page.

A. -ING, TO or both?

Write each verb in the correct column.

> enjoy, decide, love, avoid, refuse, finish, hope, start, keep, afford

+ -ING only	+ TO only	Both (-ING or TO)

B. Choose the correct option

Read the text about human rights and circle the correct option.

> Everyone deserves (1) to live / living with dignity. In 1948, the United Nations adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and since then it has encouraged governments (2) to protect / protecting the freedom of all people. However, millions of people still can't afford (3) to go / going to school or see a doctor. Some governments deny (4) to violate / violating human rights, but brave journalists keep (5) to report / reporting the truth. Human rights organizations also try to persuade citizens (6) to speak / speaking up. If you want to help, consider (7) to volunteer / volunteering for a local organization. And remember (8) to treat / treating everyone with respect: human rights start with small, everyday actions.

Eleanor Roosevelt with the Declaration in Spanish, 1949.
